that the Constitution needs revision, and that a peaceable settlement might be had by the action of such a body. We agree with the writer that the States should call a National Convention. Kentucky has asked for one, and her request stands on record. Two-thirds of the States must concur in the request before Congress can call a National Convention; and two-thirds will not agree to call one, or to ask Congress to call one Much that has recently taken place shows that evils may arise that the Constitution ought to provide for. Power is exercised, upon the constitutionality of which there is a difference of opinion, which ought to be deliberately settled by the voice of the

In order to call a Convention constitutionally, we must begin with the States, and induce two-thirds of them to call upon Congress for such a body. The writer appears to overlook this difficulty, and assumes that Congress has itself the power to call a Convention. Perhaps it would falfill the and subjugate that State has not paid exquirements of the Constitution if a maiority of the delegates in Congress from still more unfortunale. FROM THE REBELS DESIRED ARDENTLY-EFFECT OF THE INVASION-JUDGE YEAMAN A WHOLE TEAM FOR THE GOOD CAUSE-GLO RIOUS MEETING AT WHITESVILLE.

OWENSBORO, Oct. 21, 1861. Editors Democrat-Gentlemen: Matters have assumed a decidedly military aspect in the Second Congressional District. She promises to be the banner district in the way of raising troops. There is no longer any fear of the destruction of locks numbers on and two, they being secured by a competent force.

At Henderson, besides a regiment of Indiana troops stationed there, Colonel J. M. Sha kelford is rapidly filling up a regiment of Keptucky volunteers. At Owensboro Colonel Jackson is organizing his regiment cavalry, and Colonel Burbridge his regiment of infantry. At Calhoon, Colonel Hawkins has about filled his regiment of infantry, and at Hartford, Colonel John H. McHenry, an energetic young man of this county, and a true military man, is rapidly filling up his regiment, making five regiments that will be filled in four contiguous counties. Many of the recruits come in from the counties south of Green river, where they have been driven from their bomes by the violence of Secessionists and Confederate soldiers.

You will see, by reference to the map, how easily these forces might be concentrated. and how important they might become in certain contingencies. Many of the people are constantly fearing a sudden inread of Confederates, in superior numbers, from Bowlinggreen, Russellville, or Hopkins-

The Colonels don't say anything, but no doubt would be highly gratified to catch such a force this side of Green river. The men are supplied with the very best arms known

In addition to these regular forces, every true Union man in the county is ready to seize his rifle, shot gun, or the musket that has been furnished him, as a member of the operations as to return in a short time with Home Guarde, and rush to the resoue upon any emergency. It is gratifying to observe the effect the invasion has had upon the Union sentiment of this county. So far from being weakened or intimidated, the Union men have maintained their numbers, and grown in bold ness and determination. They are holding meetings and having speeches from their best men. At the meetings, whenever a company of home guards armed with Uncle Sam's guns, or a squad of Col. Jackson's cavalry, comes in view, the shouts of men, women and children for the Union, for the officers, and for their representative, Judge Yeaman, do fairly make the woods ring. The healthy tone of the Union sentiment in this county, which was redeemed from the glory enough for one day. where he so distinguished himself that he Seceders in August, is attributable in great sion of the Legislature. The secesh here are all calm; some of them appear to be subdued Of course they are nursing their wrath to keep it warm, and are hourly praying for the success of the invaders The difference is that orphan children to mourn their irreparable if the Federal arms succeed they will all be protected, while, if the Confederates succeed, this county would hardly be habita-atic lying and a good share of bullying, thought they had the Union sentiment Guard, and a thousand men, women and their names, must have removed the mis teken impression.

The work goes bravely on. The people will go cut of the Union just when themselves subjugated by cruel and longcontinued reverses on the battle field. God grant that may never happen.

A VIVANDIERE .- I recently met a Lieutenant of the Philadelphia Fire Zouaves, above the city, accompanied by a person, in appearance a fine locking young boy, uniquely dressed, but who I subsequently learned was Miss Virginia Hall, the vivandiere of the regiment In person Miss Hall is above the medium height. She is a bright blonde, having a clear blue eye, and her light hair cut short like a lad's, and parted on the side Her nose is slightly retrousse, her mouth well formed, and when she converses, even dentists might go mad at the display of so fine a set of teeth. Her uniform consists of a blue Zouave shirt, trimmed some colored braid, a Zouave with jacket of the same color, and similarly ornamented, a tunic skirt, dark pants, Zouave light leather gaiters, extendshort sword and small revolver attached to her belt. Decidedly, her appearance is pirth; she received a fine education at one of the academic institutions on the Western ners, she impresses those who form her make the camp more comfortable. The following dispatch from Jer rson City, to the St. Louis Democrat, contains all the news of importance at that point. It is dated the 23d:

In the night he was awakened by a person cutside pretending to have important dis-paspatches. On opening the window, a dozen shots were fired at him. By miracle, he escaped unhurt.

There are believed to be 400 of these returned rebels, ready for mischief, in Pettis county alone. A great number of sick have been left at

The people of Fredericktown seem to have united in an attempt to deceive the Federal troops as to the whereabouts of Thompson and his army. They stated to the officers that Thompson had left the town on Sunday, and was by that time, Monday noon, thirty miles away. THE LADIES' MEETING THIS MORNING The loyal women of Louisville and Jefferson county will meet this morning at eleven o'clock in Masonic Temple, to complete an organization, appoint committees, and make such arrangements as may be found neces Bary to carry out the objects had in view in organizing this association. We trust our lady readers will all attend and be present in time. Leave home in time to be at the hall exactly at, or even before, eleven o'clock-not start from home at that hour. It is not necessary for us to say anything of the deep importance of this movement, for we believe our loval women all feel it to be a matter of great moment.

New Book .- We are indebted to Maxwell & Co., Main street, just above Fifth, for a copy of Lady Maud, the Wender of Kingswood Chace, or Earl Gower or the Secret Marriage, by Pierce Egan, one of the most popular writers of fiction in England, who has produced several works of note, such as "Snake in the Grass," "Lady Blanche," "Love me, Leave me Not," "Ada Leigh, or the Love Test," &c. The style is pure and free from taint, the diction is elegant, the plot is well conceived and developed, and the book never flags in interest. It is published by the house of T. B. Peterson & 78th Pennsylvania regiment, called on us and Market, will commence this morning

THE MEETING LAST NIGHT .- The meeting last evening at Turner Hall was a tremen dous gathering of the up-town patriots. They were richly rewarded, too, for never did a crowded Hall in Louisville resound with more thrilling eloquence than did Turner Hall last night. W. G. Reasor and Col. W. P. Boone have ever been popular as men and orators: but, rising with the great occasion produced by this terribly wicked rebellion, they are making speeches which would do honor to any patriot orator in the world. They are producing an effect such as no speeches have produced since the gifted Holt spoke here.

RUNAWAY .- A horse attached to a buggy became frightened, yesterday, and ran away on Jefferson street, near Fifth. He threw the buggy he was drawing against the horse and buggy of Constable Osborne, badly smashing both buggies, and injuring both horses-the driver fortunately escap-

A letter in the Bulletin from camp at

The farmers who live along down the road near the rebel lines tell some rich stories of the rebel leaders. For instance, they say that the ponderous Humprey Marshall escaped to the rebel camp by disguising boot, both full of holes. Part of the way he was brought in a buggy; but the critical Or the Nicholasville (Jessamine county, Ky.) Demo all of which hear marks of truth. They say when he heard that the numbskulls and dastards to whom he trusted for stealing trains to transport his troops to Muldrough's Hill, had burnt bridges and exaggerated Rousseau's handful of men into an army ten thousand strong, and thus caused him to stop at Green river and loose his golden ouportunity forever, his rage came near proving fatal to himself and two or three of the culprits who had fled to him.

You may expect to hear of hot work out here shortly. I believe a serious fight will take place very soon. This division is beginning to feel its strength and to desire to use it. The distance between us and the rebels will be very materially shortened in a day or two, and if Buckner's men are as keen for a fight as I think they are, he cannot help but fight.

LEXINGTON, KY., Oct. 25 .- Information from Camp Wild Cat says Zollicoffer has retreated beyond London and is supposed to be failing back to Cumberland ford. Forty three mounted rebels armed with U. S. muskets, revolvers and bowie knives, confessedly bound for the rebel army, were surrounded and taken prisoners by 24 Home Guards, under Capt. Craddock and Major Buckner; also four other men with 42 horses, the former aiding the cavalrymen to escape.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo , October 25 -The Pacific telegraph was completed to San Francisco yesterday, and was in fine working order last evening. The first through message transmitted over the line is from Stephen J. Field, Chief Justice of California, in the absence of the Governor, to Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States. In consequence of the line being closed east of here before we received notice of the line working last night, we were obliged to hold the message, with others, over night. The enterprize is a success, and the line is working very satisfactorily. The press dispatches and private business forwarded from here up to twelve o'clock last night were laid before the public in California this morning. NEW YORK, Oct. 25 .- The following news

The Ohio Fourteenth, Colonel Steedman and six pieces of artillery left Camp Dick Robinson on Saturday morning, and, by a forced march last night, reached this camp early this morning. We found the Ohio Seventeenth, Colonel Connell, and the Indi-ana Thirty-third, Colonel Coburn, here. with Garrard's regiment-only about 700 efficient men.

When we reached the camp, firing was heard, and we hurried to the scene of action. We found the Indiana boys doing terrible execution. In a short time the heavy guns were wheeled to the front, and spoke louder than all others. Soon the firing ceased, and the wounded began to arrive at the hospital, where, under the care of Dr. W. C. Daniels, Dr. Sloat, Dr. Schenck and others, their wounds were dressed. While engaged in aiding the surgeons, we

You may look out for stirring events within the next seven or eight days. Col. Harris' Second Ohio is to-night near Hazelgreen, Wolfe county, and part of Col. L. B. Grugsby's Kentucky Regiment is the advance guard of General W. Nelson's command. Col. Norton's Thirty-third Ohio and one other Ohio regiment passed through Mt. Sterling Saturday last Captain Laughlin's Cavalry and Artillery left the same place on the 21st. Yesterday, early, Col. Metcalf's Kentucky Regiment, (son of the old Stone Hammer,) passed at noon the same point, Col. Marshal's Ken-tucky Regiment, to-day, at noon, all seeming in great haste, traveling about twenty miles per day. To-night, all but the latter regiment, will be in or near Hazelgreen, and about forty miles from Prestonsburg, and I expect by this day week we shall hear of a fight or a foot race. General Nelson is the right man in the right place.
